International Conference

June 22- 23th 2015, Vienna, Austria

Molecular Ecology and Evolution

Molecular Ecology and Evolution is a field of evolutionary biology, concerned with applying molecular population genetics, molecular phylogenetics, and, more recently, “Omics” to traditional ecological questions.

The main goal of the International Conference “Molecular Ecology and Evolution” is to review the state of the art and progress in the knowledge of molecular evolution, species diagnosis, conservation and assessment of biodiversity, species-area relationships, and behavioral ecology, to set research priorities for the next era of research.

The program of Molecular Ecology and Evolution Conference combines plenary lectures and session talks, posters sessions, special sessions on career development, and tours of the beautiful city of Vienna. Approximately 250-300 participants are expected, including more than 35 speakers and many presentations, selected from abstracts.

Conference covers following topics:

- Population and Landscape Genetics
- Genetic Analysis of Populations
- Genetic Variation and Diversity
- Molecular Evolution
- Phylogenetics and Phylogeography
- Molecular Approaches to Behavioral Ecology
- Conservation Genetics & Genomics
- Applied Molecular Ecology

Invited speakers:

R. Butlin (UK), Th. Staedler (Switzerland), P. Ingvarsson (Sweden), J. Bolliger (Switzerland), Ch. Hardtke (Switzerland), I. Dworkin (USA), E. Zimmer (USA), S. Snir (Israel), M. For the first time, Vienna Conference Series offer Special Career & Job Sessions and Organized Meetings with Potential Employees and Employers! Take the unique opportunity to find the GREAT JOB and Outstanding Researchers for Academy and Industry Labs! These sessions offer the unique chance for young researchers to present their portfolio (talks for 5-7 min.) and for academy and industry – talks on their areas of research and business (talks for 5-7 min.)

Vienna Conference Series also offer the great opportunity to get FREE REGISTRATION, if you attract 5 more colleagues to attend the meeting, independent on the institution and location.

Finally, if you are not able to attend the Conference, you can still submit your abstract and we are happy to publish it in the abstract book for just 50 €!
